1. It's okay for a cow to jump over the moon, but I can't jump off the couch.
2. It's okay for the babies on the bus to go "wah, wah, wah" all through the town, but I can't scream in my carseat for half a block.
3. It's okay for 4 grown men to wiggle all day long to music, but I can't move for a second during the family photo shoot.
